

Pulmonary Hypertension Resource Network

PH Resource Network

The recognized network of healthcare professionals within the Pulmonary Hypertension Association

Who We Are

We are the front line in the battle against pulmonary hypertension. Working with physicians, we are the nurses, respiratory therapists, technicians, pharmacists and other healthcare professionals who serve as the medical support network for people dealing with this devastating disease. As part of the Pulmonary Hypertension Association, PH Resource Network is dedicated to enhancing communication, professional development, research and education among PH medical professionals.

What PH Resource Network offers

- Web site and on-line communications
- Peer-to-peer support network
- CEU educational sessions
- Advances in Pulmonary Hypertension medical journal
- Pathlight and Persistent Voices newsletters
- Professional outreach to other allied health groups
- Patient education tools
- Connection to NIH's National Institute of Nursing Research
- Administrative support for developing and submitting research proposals
