

- 2) Encourage PHA leaders, members and other patient associations with which it maintains MOUs to work cooperatively with PHA-BCPHS
- 3) Seek funding to support coordinating manager for PH organizations throughout the world to be housed at PHA's office in Silver Spring, MD
- 4) Invite PHA-BCPHS to participate in an International PH organization discussion council. PHA (US) will establish a list serve for this purpose.
- 5) Share best practices.
- 6) Maintain a cooperative spirit to foster the development of additional opportunities for coordination and collaboration.

PHA-(BCPHS) agrees to:

- 1) Make reference to PHA (US) on its web site and other appropriate publications, such as newsletters.
- 2) Encourage its leaders members and other patient associations with which it maintains MOUs to work cooperatively with PHA (US).
- 3) Make its members in the British Columbia Canada aware of PHA (US).
- 4) Participate in an International PH organization discussion council established by PHA.
- 5) Share best practices.
- 6) Maintain a cooperative spirit to foster the development of additional opportunities for coordination and collaboration.

This memorandum is a guideline for the relationship between PHA (US) and PHA (BCPHS) and may be voided at any time by either party by a letter from a legitimate representative of either organization, stating their board's desire to terminate the memorandum.

Signed by:

Bina Aldropetti
representing PHA (US)

Elizabeth McCall
representing PHA-BCPHS

Print name:

Bina Aldropetti

ELIZABETH McCall

Date:

Jan 23, 2004

Jan. 14, 2004