

PH: NEW HOPE FOR PATIENTS (30 seconds)

Imagine if your doctor told you, you have six months to live. That's the message many pulmonary hypertension patients hear when they are diagnosed. But with earlier diagnosis and new treatments, it's an incorrect message. Many patients are living five, ten, even twenty years with this illness. Hope for tomorrow is even better. Learn more at www.PHAssociation.org.